

Helping to end hunger in Marin

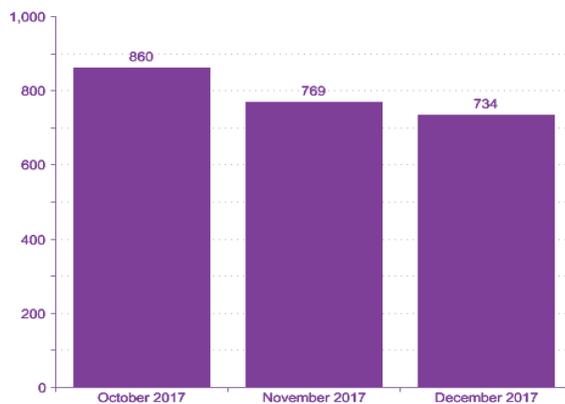

FOOD DONOR IMPACT REPORT

Q4 2017 HIGHLIGHTS

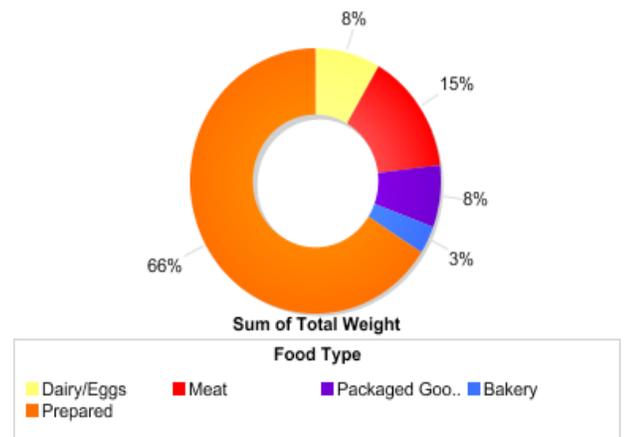

- 13 recipient partners received 2,363 lbs. of food.
- Recipients included such organizations as North Bay Children’s Center, Whistlestop, New Beginnings, and Lifehouse.

WOODLANDS MARKET’S IMPACT

Total Donated Weight — Q4 / YTD

Total Donated Food by Type — Q4 / YTD

RECIPIENT SPOTLIGHT

“We love getting fresh, healthy food. We are a senior facility. Many residents are single and no longer like to cook for themselves. When we can provide them with food like we get from ExtraFood and Woodlands Market we know they are feeding their bodies and their brains. It is sad to watch someone lose their cognitive abilities due to poor diet.”

Linda Perkins / Resident Manager/ San Rafael Rotary Manor

RECIPIENT PARTNERS SERVED

Bennett House: A residence in Fairfax for low-income seniors which promotes the belief that affordable housing and supportive programs help to transform neighborhoods and improve peoples' lives.

Homestead Terrace: A Marin Housing Authority property, located in Mill Valley, Homestead Terrace provides 28 studio units to very low income, independent seniors and disabled people.

Lifehouse: Lifehouse provides high-quality, personalized residential and direct support services to over 200 individuals with developmental disabilities in Marin and Sonoma county. Lifehouse's clients live in their own apartment or home, with support services ranging from 2 hours per week to 24-hour care.

Marin Services for Men: Seeks to improve the quality of the lives of adult men and their families who are adversely affected by dependence on alcohol and/or drugs, by providing services and housing in a clean, safe, and supportive environment.

Homeward Bound: Homeward Bound is Marin County's chief provider of shelter and residential services for homeless families and individuals, serving approximately 1,300 people per year in 15 inter-related residential programs.

Voyager Carmel Center: A Homeward Bound Facility, Voyager provides short-term (1 to 4 months) and long-term housing for adults with mental illness. The center includes a 24-hour staff, a communal kitchen, and a program that focuses on crisis prevention, job readiness, and basic living skills improvement. They also share food with Homeward Bound's Fourth Street Center.

New Beginnings Center: A Homeward Bound facility, this 80-bed shelter for single homeless adults - the largest homeless shelter in Marin county. It includes the Fresh Starts Culinary Academy, which welcomes residents and students from the community into a job-training program in their state-of-the-art kitchen.

North Bay Children's Center: North Bay Children's Center provides comprehensive high-quality child care and early education programs fueled by a vision of excellence and a spirit of innovation.

Parnow Friendship House: A 72 unit non-profit apartment community that provides housing for low income seniors 62 years or older, or those under 62 who qualify for the need of an adapted apartment designed for mobility impairments.

Ritter Center: Offers critically-needed services to the homeless and very low income residents of our county: food and clothing, health care, psychotherapy and substance abuse counseling, showers, laundry, restroom facilities, and more—all provided free of charge.

San Rafael Rotary Manor: Located in a neighborhood not far from downtown / 4th Street, this 99-unit apartment building offers low-cost and safe housing for seniors.

RECIPIENT PARTNERS SERVED

- continued from previous page -

St. Vincent de Paul Society of Marin: St. Vincent de Paul Society of Marin's Free Dining Room, which was created in 1981 as a free kitchen to serve Marin County's hungry citizens, is open every day, and has served more than two million meals to date.

West Marin Community Services: For almost 40 years, WMCS has provided supportive care and emergency funds to people who have unmet needs or are in crisis and are unable to find assistance through any other means.

Whistlestop: Helping older adults age with dignity, grace, and independence since 1954 by providing delicious meals, classes, social programs, transportation, referral services, and more.